Speaker 1: [chuckles]

Speaker 2: What?

Speaker 1: Nothing, just--

Waiter: Okay, the vegan huevos.

Speaker 1: That's for me, thank you.

Waiter: The just potatoes.

Speaker 2: Oh, it's me.

Waiter: Right and finally, the bloodless bacon booze breakfast.

Speaker 4: Thank you.

Waiter: Can I get you ladies anything else?

Speaker 1: No, that's okay. Thank you.

Waiter: Great.

Speaker 4: Guys, I'm so excited.

Speaker 1: I'm starving. Okay.

Speaker 4: Oh, nice.

Speaker 1: Okay, but your hat is blocking my--

Brother: Art gallery, sounds boring.

Mother: Uh, playing on your phone all day sounds boring.

Brother: I have homework.

Mother: Okay, well get it done. I'll see you in a couple hours.

[door shuts]

Car speaker: Connected to device.

[background noises]

Mother: Hello? Is that your phone?

Sister: No, no.

Mother: Oh my, oh my gosh. Turn this off right now. Turn--

Why-why is that not working?

Sister: I don't know. It's not working.

Mother: Okay, why--

Sister: Stop touching every button.

[background noises]

Mother: Okay, well, I'm trying to turn this off.

[birds chirping]

Sister: [sighs] So gross.

[music]

Mother: I feel like every time I leave him alone, all he does is sit there and watch pornography. Yeah, well, he has his phone on him all the time. Okay, I'm-I'm starting to get anxiety every time I walk into a room. [shoe noise]

[silence]

[phone rings]

John: Hello? Oh yeah, I will get that to you as soon as possible--

[splash]

[background noise]

John: Fuck.

Co-worker: I need this. Mine just died on a conference call.

John: Uh-uh, no, I just, I want--

Co-worker: You know what you need? Passcode.

John: Great, yeah, I'll get one. Uh, it's just if you could just, uh--

Co-worker: Hi, [chuckles] I'm back. Geoffrey, no, he's a dick. I'm just gonna--
